1. DECISION MADE:

Agreed –

- To the Council's participation in the Syrian Vulnerable Persons Relocation Scheme
- To the Council's participation in the Afghan Interpreters Relocation Scheme
- To seek the commitment of Cwm Taf University Health Board, Local Housing providers and the third sector to support the Council in delivering these schemes
- That the Service Director, Public Health & Protection, enters into the discussions with the Welsh Government and the Home Office to determine how many individuals / families can be supported in Rhondda Cynon Taf.
- That the Service Director, Public Health & Protection, in liaison with relevant colleagues and Cabinet Member, makes whatever practical and financial arrangements are necessary to operationalise both schemes at the earliest opportunity.

2. REASON FOR THE DECISION BEING MADE:

- The need to brief members on two Home Office Schemes; the Syrian Vulnerable Person's Relocation Scheme and the Afghan Interpreters Relocation Scheme, and to seek Members approval to support and actively participate in both schemes.
