1. DECISION MADE:

Agreed –

1. To note the widespread support of those who responded to the consultation for investment into Rhondda Fach Leisure Centre to make it more sustainable;
2. That following consideration of the outcomes of the consultation and other matters outlined in the report and its appendix, to implement the proposal in respect of the remodelling of Rhondda Fach Leisure Centre as outlined below:
 - i. To invest over £500,000 and modernise the facilities provided by changing the Leisure Centre into a substantial dry side leisure facility, concentrating on fitness and indoor sports including:
 - A new fitness facility
 - A new indoor 3G sports pitch
 - Closure of the swimming pool and increasing the swimming capacity nearby in other leisure facilities within the Rhondda
 - Develop partnerships with local sporting clubs to create sporting pathways
 - Utilise part of the building for Council office accommodation;
3. To note that the Headteacher of Ferndale Community School has agreed to work with the Council towards providing increased opportunities for public swimming at the school pool; and
4. That the funding implications relating to the remodelling of the Leisure Centre be subject to a future report of the Group Director, Corporate & Frontline Services.
