In his report, the Monitoring Officer presented the Report published by Cardiff City Council providing feedback on the Standards Conference Wales 2015 - 'Standards and Ethics in a Changing World' and following consideration thereof, it was RESOLVED to note the report and advise Cardiff Council of an error in the wording of Bullet Point 4 shown on the last page of the report in that 'In RCT, the whole Committee (not Council) is involved rather than just three Independent members in Cardiff'.

In his report, the Monitoring Officer advised the Committee of the recent Welsh Government consultation concerning proposed amendments to subordinate legislation relating to the local government ethical framework (including Model Code of Conduct).

The Monitoring Officer stated that the Council would consider adopting the new Model Code of Conduct at the Annual General Meeting to be held in May 2016 and he would also advise the Clerks of Community/Town Councils within the County Borough that they too would need to adopt the new Model Code of Conduct.

Following consideration of the Monitoring Officer's comments, it was RESOLVED to note the contents of the consultation document and proposed amendments to the legislation.

23 MEMBERS' ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS

During consideration of the information provided in the report, a discussion ensued around the type of information the Committee required to be presented in future relating to individual Member's attendances. In this regard, the Monitoring Officer referred to the level of information currently provided on the website of Cardiff City Council in relation to attendance by its individual Councillors which the Standards Committee might wish to consider.

Following a discussion, it was RESOLVED –

- (3) That the Monitoring Officer puts in place arrangements to ensure that the level of information required is recorded on the Council's website on an individual Councillor basis and produced along the lines of that currently published by Cardiff City Council.

- (4) That prior to the 2016 Annual General Meeting of the Council, the Chairman of the Standards Committee meets with the Leaders of the various Political Groups within the Council to outline the intention of the Standards Committee to monitor individual Members' attendances at meetings in the future.
