- 3.2 Exercising Welsh language duties is not a new development as all local authorities have been implementing Welsh Language Schemes that were established in 1993 by the Welsh Language Act.
- 3.3 The aim of the Welsh Language Standards is to build on the work of the language schemes by ensuring consistency for individuals in terms of

Section 47 Welsh Language (Wales) 2011 Consultation Response Form

Consultation closing date: 20 July 2015

Please note that the failure of a person to participate in a consultation does not prevent the Commissioner from giving the person a compliance notice. Section 56(4) of the Measure notes that it is the relevant person's responsibility to set out reasons why they consider the requirement to comply with a standard, or to comply with it in a particular respect, is unreasonable or disproportionate.

Note the standards included within this Compliance Notice (if any) which you consider to be unreasonable and / or disproportionate. Where appropriate, you should note whether varying a requirement (see examples below) to comply with a standard would make it reasonable and/or proportionate? In the same manner, you should note if there are any other accompanying standards relating to the same activity or issue which you consider to be reasonable and/or proportionate.

Please note the standard number and reasons / evidence
5	Although this standard is rigorously applied in a significant number of departments at present, there are areas of inconsistency which need to be addressed. These emanate in part from the large number of changes that have occurred within Council structures and among Council personnel over	It is anticipated that additional time would be required to embed this across all service areas within the Council. Therefore an extension from 6 months to 1 year is requested.

	the past year so that more awareness raising is required to be undertaken in areas that have seen the largest changes in order to ensure that new managers are fully aware of their responsibilities.
25 and 28	There are insufficient numbers of bilingual specialist staff (e.g. social workers) available within the Council or indeed across the wider local authority partnership in South East Wales to ensure that these standards can be implemented consistently across all service areas. Despite having a robust Linguistic Skills Framework, recruitment of Welsh speaking staff into roles in these sectors, remains insufficient. It should be noted that there is a nation-wide shortage of social workers and associated professionals making the recruitment of suitable numbers of Welsh speakers even more challenging. The nature of the well-being meetings that occur often require rapid intervention to protect vulnerable individuals and their families. In such instances it is unreasonable to place an additional burden on the local authority in respect of ensuring that meetings	Currently there are 11,000 service users who have accessed the Rhondda Cynon Taf Council social care system in the last year (2014/15) of which 83 are Welsh speakers, this equates to less than 1%. This figure may be understated as the question regarding service delivery in Welsh may not have been proactively offered. We currently have 120 staff in the social care service area who have chosen to declare that they are Welsh speakers. However, we cannot guarantee on every occasion that bilingual staff with the appropriate social care qualifications and specialist skills will be able to meet the needs of Welsh speaking clients. It is requested that this standard be reduced to one whereby provision of a translator is provided at well-being meetings where a service users wants to speak in Welsh as this is a more achievable and proportionate requirement for a county with the linguistic profile of Rhondda Cynon Taf. Alternatively there could be a reasonable adjustment whereby a family member or close friend could act as advocate or translator as long as this is with the consent of the individual and respects the confidentiality of the vulnerable person.

	can occur in Welsh without the presence of a translator. This could cause a delay in providing vital services for vulnerable service users which is a statutory duty placed on the Council by government and which is often governed by restrictive timescales.
44	Many of the documents outlined in this Standard are currently translated. However, the anticipated additional workload of ensuring that this Standard is met (along with other standards identified in the Draft Compliance Notice) makes the timescale insupportable.	An extension from 6 months to 2 years is requested on the basis that a gradual approach will be easier to manage both in terms of cost and staff capacity, for example as and when policies are reviewed. It is also likely that there will be far fewer consultation documents and plans to be translated as time passes and non-statutory local authority services are significantly reduced or stopped.
52	The Council has worked diligently to ensure that suitable processes are in place to provide a swift response to translating and uploading of pages onto the corporate website. However there remain challenges due to the swift turnaround required if Welsh is to be treated no less favourably than English on the website. One of the biggest challenges at present is ensuring that both	Extending the time frame to two years would give more opportunity for exercising a stepped approach to full compliance.

	languages are uploaded simultaneously and that there is sufficient staff capacity focussed on this area that is developing rapidly.
64	Whereas all customer facing staff are aware of their duties in relation to meeting and greeting bilingually, it would not be possible to provide a fully Welsh speaking service at all libraries and leisure centres due to the lack of Welsh-speaking personnel currently employed by the Council. By April 2015 11% of Council staff were registered as Welsh speaking with higher levels in areas such as Education compensating for much lower levels in some other departments such as HR. Reception services provided at the One4All Centres do not currently fully comply with this standard. Appointments booked where Welsh language needs are identified beforehand are fully supported in terms of advice but it is not possible to ensure that every drop-in can be dealt with in Welsh and there may not always be sufficient Welsh speakers to cover for holidays and sickness. The Council is fully aware of the	Currently very few staff have sufficient language skills for us to comply fully with this standard. The Council will continue to assess posts to identify those where Welsh is regarded as essential when posts become vacant, and to up-skill current employees in order to move towards a more sustainable Welsh service provision over time.

	need to ensure sufficient numbers of Welsh speakers are available in key customer-facing areas and have processes in place to identify these needs. However as the numbers of Council staff are reducing and very little recruitment currently takes place, the emphasis is on training staff who have identified an interest in learning Welsh. This is seen as a more cost effective response to this standard but it is a longer term solution (albeit a sustainable one). Bearing in mind the above it is submitted that it is unreasonable to expect the Council to achieve this standard within any of the timescales available under the Draft Compliance Notice.
70	Official notices encompasses a broad range of products, and it is submitted that it would be unreasonable in a local authority areas as large as Rhondda Cynon Taf, to require this standard to be implemented within 6 months.	A timescale of 2 years is requested in order to ensure full compliance and also to reduce unnecessary cost of replacing notices that continue to be in good repair.
Any and all standards which allude to the use of Simultaneous Translation including:	Simultaneous translation is a specialist skill that is not available among Council staff at the present time and the service, when required, is purchased from private sector organisations that charge approximately £50 per hour.	Complying with these standards is felt to be too challenging for the foreseeable future due to the cost implication and also the lack of suitably qualified personnel to deliver the service. The Council will continue however to provide this facility in specific situations whenever it is able to do so and where it is assessed that

Individual / Group Meetings 24, 24A, 27A, 27D Public Meetings: 32, 33 Interviews: 74, 79 HR Staff: 114, 118, 139	It is anticipated that as there are few qualified and experienced personnel to deliver this service across Wales, that there is a strong likelihood that the current cost per hour will increase as demand outstrips supply as all public sector organisations compete for the small number of simultaneous translators available. It is already difficult to engage this service at short notice. This can only worsen if these Standards are implemented. The Standards require this provision to be available far more widely than is currently the case and it is not possible to accurately assess the number of meetings and other situations where the service would be required under the Draft Compliance Notice. It is submitted that binding the Council to Standards that will require additional expenditure at a time when services to the community are being reduced is unreasonable in this instance and will do little to promote the use of Welsh within the county.	there is a value to doing so, for example, where a majority of members at a meeting have expressed a desire to speak in Welsh or in cases that relate to well-being of staff or members of the community is under discussion (as is currently the case).
85, 86	Education courses for the post 18 sector are delivered by the Adult Community Learning Partnership led by the local authority. The Rhondda Cynon Taf partnership delivers a	An extension to the compliance notice (from six months to one year) would be required so that adult community courses in 2016/17 can be assessed for delivery in Welsh as required under these Standards and the assessments

	variety of Welsh-medium courses to residents. However, these new standards cannot be implemented during the current academic year as courses (to begin September 2015) are already timetabled and have been included in a brochure that has already been published. It will not be possible therefore to reconsider the options currently on offer to the public. In addition it would be helpful if clarification could be provided of whether this standard would apply to other provision offered by the local authority including Governor Training.	then placed on the website.
100-111	There are currently a large quantity of policies, procedures and supplementary documents in HR (in the region of 100). The financial implications of meeting the standard within the identified time frame would be prohibitive as the internal translation team do not have the capacity to undertake this work within such a limited time. Outsourcing the work to the private sector would place a financial burden on the Council that it would be unable to sustain in the current climate.	An extension to two years is requested to reflect the expected workload and taking into account the capacity of the Translation Team and Council priorities for promoting the Welsh language across the county. Policies may be translated on review as suggested for Standard 44.

	It is suggested that these standards could be achieved in a more cost effective way if the policies are translated when they are reviewed/amended. This would reduce the burden on staff as the work would be spread out over a longer period of time. It is also submitted that the timescale is disproportionate considering the fact that only 11% of the staff are Welsh speakers. As the resident population has 12.9% Welsh speakers it is argued that focussing limited translation resources on public facing documents and communications will be more valuable in the longer term and have a wider impact in respect of promoting the Welsh language in the county.
Standards (within 1 year)
41	This standard is unreasonable and unachievable. The Council currently provides the agendas of cabinet meetings in Welsh but there would be significant financial and procedural implication for the Council should there be a need to translate all of the other documents referred to in this Standard. Analysis of the word count of the publicly available documents relating to cabinet meetings which have taken place over the past year indicates that on the basis of a cost	There are considerable challenges posed by this standard and it will be impossible to meet these challenges both in respect of funding, staffing capacity and structural procedures. It is therefore suggested that this Standard should be deleted from the Draft Compliance Notice. The Council will continue to translate Council agendas and will commit to translating documentation that has a specifically Welsh interest such as the documents produced for the cabinet's Welsh Language Steering Group (as is currently the case).

	of £80 per 1,000 words translated, the Council would have had to budget for additional costs in excess of £120,000 per annum. There is no capacity in the Welsh Translation team to meet this level of demand for translation and with Council budgets being significantly reduced, it is deemed to be unreasonable to apply this standard at this time. .
