FREE Secondary Language Link Training Webinars \(free for subscribers\)

Our new user training webinars have been very successful, with staff from 100 schools attending each time. You may wish to learn about Secondary Language Link or you may wish to top up your knowledge and ask a question. The next free sessions will be in February, to be hosted by Louise Bingham, speech and language therapist.

This training is split into two sessions so you are required to attend both sessions for each package. If you wish to register, please contact the Help Desk. At the moment registration is limited to one booking per school, although of course there is no limit on the number of school staff watching this session at the same monitor (if possible). If there are still places available nearer the time, we can add extra school staff from a waiting list. It is necessary to attend both twilight sessions. Please email office2@speechlink.co.uk if you would like to 'attend'.

Wednesday 3rd February – 3.30-5.00

NEW!! The Link Live Virtual Conference – an SLCN Journey from 4-14 years

Date: 21-22 May 2021

Venue: online

Our first ever virtual conference will take place next spring and will showcase specialist SLCN content, including a range of evidenced interventions, to help you and your school boost Speech, Language and Communication skills and close the attainment gap.

Our seminars will be delivered by specialist speakers and we are delighted to kick off our guest line-up by announcing our keynote speaker, education expert and former Communication Champion, Jean Gross CBE. This conference is open to all, and places are free to subscribing primary and secondary schools.

If you are interested in attending, please register with the Help Desk on 0333 577 0784. You will also receive monthly email updates with more information on speakers and seminars.
