

Celts Volleyball Club

Celts Volleyball Club are based at the University of South Wales Sports Park. 2021 has been a great year for them, with over 40 new junior members joining the club.

These new members, aged 7 to 16, took part in their first tournament recently and claimed second place!

5 members of the club have been selected for the Under 19 England squad and the girls team are currently at the top of their league in the South West of England league.

