Maisie, Callum and Imogen

Cwmbach Church in Wales Primary School

This year, Maisie, Callum and Imogen have been outstanding role models, helping to promote physical activity and teamwork across their school. They have supported younger pupils to learn new games, created their own team game, Cwmbach Ball, helped secure funding for new sports equipment, and played a key role in launching the Daily Mile.

They have also supported the school's involvement in the TCS London Mini Marathon 2026, and two of them proudly represented the school through the A Step A Head programme.

Their hard work, leadership and enthusiasm have had a positive impact on the whole school community, inspiring others to be active, confident and involved. The school are incredibly proud of everything they have achieved.
