Sophia, Henry, Lucus and Maddison

Penygawsi Primary School

Sophia, Henry, Lucus and Maddison were nominated to become Young Ambassadors because they are kind, considerate and hardworking role models to others. They consistently demonstrate determination and always strive to do their best in everything they do. Their positive attitudes, teamwork and dedication inspire those around them, and they are always willing to support and encourage their peers. Their passion for sport and their natural leadership skills make them excellent role models who promote the values of respect, perseverance and inclusivity within their school community.

"The children have been setting up a tennis activity on the MUGA each breaktime and lunchtime, allowing the other children in KS2 to play tennis. They have also been going on the Foundation Phase yard to play traditional yard games with the younger children. They hope to extend their club to include table tennis during wet playtimes this half term. Their enthusiasm and hard work have really made a difference to our school. The Sports Ambassadors have really enjoyed leading tennis during lunchtimes and breaktimes. It is lovely to see them encouraging others to play different sports."
