

ANDREW WILLIAMS

Andrew Williams has been a dedicated member of Abercynon Cricket Club for an outstanding 48 years, having first joined as a 13 year old. His lifelong commitment has seen him grow from a promising youth player into a central figure within the club. As Chairman for nearly two decades, Andrew has played a vital role in guiding the club's development, overseeing everything from fixtures and team management to representing the club at Cricket Wales and league meetings.

Beyond his leadership duties, Andrew is deeply passionate about nurturing the next generation of cricketers. He works closely with youth teams, supports the All Stars and Dynamos programmes for children aged 5–11, and has recently helped establish a ladies' team. He also secures sponsorship and liaises with the council on pitch matters. Known as a true cricketing "guru," Andrew's enthusiasm, knowledge, and unwavering dedication continue to inspire everyone at the club.
